

Nevada State Bank's Bill Martin to serve as Honorary Advisory Board Member

Las Vegas, Nevada, December 26, 2005 – Street Teens announced the appointment of Mr. Bill Martin, Chairman, President & CEO of Nevada State Bank to its Honorary Advisory Board.

“Mr. Martin, a prominent business leader in the Las Vegas community is exactly who we need to bring more of a focus on the homeless and at-risk youth in Las Vegas”, stated Street Teens Executive Director, Lisa Preston.

In Las Vegas, Mr. Martin was the former President and CEO of Pioneer Citizens Bank from 1989 until 1999 and was previously the President and CEO of Nevada National Bank. Prior to his move to Las Vegas, he served as Deputy Comptroller for Multinational Banking, Office of the Comptroller of Currency in Washington, D.C.

Lisa Preston continued, “We are honored and pleased to welcome Mr. Martin in his role as Honorary Advisory Board Member. Street Teens has already benefited greatly from his generosity over the years, from unrestricted grants, to center supplies and food. We look forward to the many contributions he will bring.”
